

2016 FFLA North Eastern Conference

September 17th and 18th

The 2016 FFLA Northeastern Regional Conference will be held in Keene, NY. Keene is located west of the Adirondack Northway, south of Lake Placid.

The event will take place at the Keene Fire Department on State Route 73 across from the Stewart's Shop.

Fire Tower visits for early arrivals on Friday, September 16th can include Cornell Hill and Spruce.

Friday night will be a short board meeting open to the public.

Saturday, September 17th we will gather at the Keene fire hall for the presentations by guest speakers beginning at 8:00am. The line up includes: Friends of Hurricane Mountain, Friends of St. Regis, Friends of Stillwater, Dave Vana, Tate O'Connor, David Thomas-Train of Friends of Poke-O- Moonshine, and Larry Gordon from Cornell Hill.

Breakfast and Lunch are included.

Saturday afternoon visits to fire towers may include Poke-O, Belfry, Palmer Hill, and the Elizabethtown Museum.

Sunday we may take a trip to Stillwater and St. Regis to the west.

For those who would like to stay longer, Monday can include a trip to Hurricane.

Lodging and restaurant options are numerous and varied. See <http://ffla.org> for links to more information, including a Google map.

In nearby Elizabethtown is the Adirondack History Museum, complete with a fire tower! If you happen to be traveling to and from the west, the Adirondack Museum in Blue Mountain also has a fire tower.

Early bird special – pre-register and save $5.00. It helps us with planning and is greatly appreciated. Registration covers the cost of the facility, snacks, and Saturday Breakfast and Lunch.

Cost: $35.00, or early bird special $30.00.
